A Call to Plein Air Artists

From 7am –11am

Plein Air Artists will create along the Pine Creek Trail or Kieps Island Canoe Landing at the Trempealeau National Wildlife Refuge

At 11:30am-1pm

Set up your easels outside the OWL Center, share your mornings work and enjoy a luncheon.

The Artist in the Refuge-Plein Air Event is sponsored by the Friends of Trempealeau Refuge and is made possible through donations from the Michael Owecke Memorial Fund.

In the morning 10 participating Artists will be creating plein air, at their choice of two different sites in the Refuge, allowing visitors to be able to engage with artists and see their creative process. We are looking for two dimensional work in any media suitable for plein air.

At 11:30 am, Artists and visitors are invited to a luncheon at the OWL Center near the Refuge Contact Station.

Outside of OWL Center participating Artists are invited to set up their easels to share their mornings work.

Please send sign up form by April 15
